

MINOR IN

LATIN AMERICAN & LATINX STUDIES

EXPLORE WHERE YOU LOVE

Explore the rich cultures, histories, and voices of Latin America and of communities in the U.S. with Latin American roots! Whether you are following a passion or exploring your own heritage, a minor in Latin American & Latinx Studies complements any major.

Earn your minor by demonstrating intermediate-level Spanish and by taking four electives dealing with Latin America or Latinx cultures in the U.S.

Our graduates get jobs in fields like business, law, social services, healthcare, and education. Dive in to the diverse perspectives, make connections, and be transformed to a more informed and impactful global citizen!

COURSES

Take classes about Latin America across different departments and enjoy topics like immigration, social justice, and popular culture while gaining critical thinking and communication skills that today's employers say they need.

- LAS 2501G Introduction to Latinx Studies
- HIS 2050G US History: Building Latino/a/e Communities
- ENG 2706G Latin American & Latinx Literatures
- THA 3757G Contemporary World Theatre
- WLS 4320 Civilization and Culture of Spanish America
- WLS 4650 Argentine Culture

QUESTIONS? CONTACT:

DR. VANESA CARBONETTI LANDRUS

Coordinator, Latin American & Latinx Studies

VMLANDRUS@EIU.EDU
(217) 581-3021

EXPLORE A VIBRANT, INTERDISCIPLINARY, & EXCITING MINOR!

EXPERIENCE IT ALL AT EIU. | go.eiu.edu/latinstudies